Description

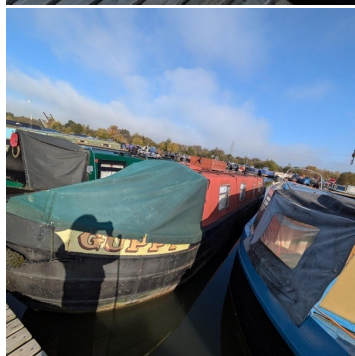

Step aboard Guppy, a 42-foot cruiser stern narrowboat with vintage charm and robust engineering from 1978. With a distinctive double chine and flat-bottomed design, Guppy promises stability and smooth handling on the water. Built with practicality in mind, this cruiser stern layout offers ample outdoor space for socialising or simply enjoying the water. With her sturdy structure and classic appeal, she's a remarkable starting point for anyone seeking both adventure and a unique customisation opportunity.

As you move through Guppy, you'll find a thoughtfully designed galley equipped with all the essentials for cooking onboard. The space features a cooker, sink, fridge, and additional storage, all laid out for convenience and efficiency. It's a cosy kitchen space that encourages simple meals and shared moments, inviting you to make it your own with personal touches or modern upgrades.

At the heart of the boat lies an inviting saloon, centred around an L-shaped dinette that doubles as a comfortable lounging space. The open-plan design provides a sense of spaciousness and fluidity, ideal for unwinding, watching TV, or dining with friends. Ample storage keeps the area neat, while the adaptable layout gives you the freedom to create a personalised relaxation zone on the water.

Guppy's master bedroom offers two cosy single beds at the stern, providing a peaceful retreat for restful nights. The layout of the bathroom is equally practical, with a separate shower area and a compact toilet and sink, ensuring that your onboard experience is comfortable and functional. This efficient design maximises space and maintains a simple, clean aesthetic, awaiting your finishing touches.

With clean, understated finishes throughout, Guppy is a blank canvas waiting to be transformed. Her simplicity and neutral décor make her the perfect candidate for adding your unique style, whether through colorful furnishings, modern upgrades, or vintage-inspired details. Guppy offers a sturdy, spacious platform for creating a truly personalised narrowboat that reflects your taste and sense of adventure.
