Description

Step aboard IMP, a delightful 26ft semi-traditional narrowboat, meticulously crafted in 1996 by the esteemed boatbuilders J Pinder & Sons. This compact vessel is perfect for those seeking a peaceful escape on the waterways, offering all the essentials for a comfortable life afloat. Whether you're cruising solo or enjoying a quiet retreat, IMP's clever layout and traditional charm ensure a memorable experience.

The galley is a practical and welcoming space, designed to make meal preparation simple yet enjoyable. The centrepiece is a stainless steel sink with a drainer, gleaming and easy to clean, ideal for keeping things tidy while navigating life on the water. Open shelving provides ample storage, ensuring that all your cooking essentials are within reach. A reliable Russell Hobbs fridge sits snugly in the corner, ready to keep your fresh produce and drinks cool, making this kitchen fully equipped for your needs.

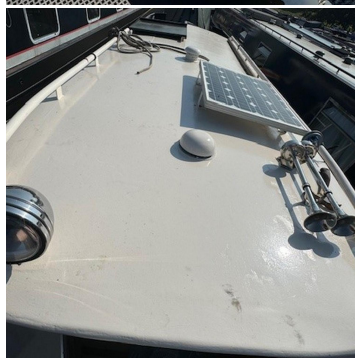

Step into the cosy lounge, where relaxation meets practicality. A comfortable bench seat invites you to unwind after a day of cruising, while also offering discreet storage underneath for extra blankets, cushions, or other belongings. The soft glow from the porthole windows illuminates the space, creating a tranquil atmosphere where you can enjoy the ever-changing views outside. For entertainment, a Panasonic television is mounted, ready for you to catch up on your favourite shows or watch a film, turning the lounge into your perfect evening retreat.

The dinette area is compact yet versatile, featuring a drop-leaf table that can easily be expanded for dining or working and folded down when space is needed. It's an ideal spot for enjoying a quiet meal, writing, or even playing games, with the intimate setting making every moment feel special. The table's design allows it to blend seamlessly with the rest of the boat's décor while maintaining practicality.

At the rear of the boat, you'll find the master bedroom, a peaceful sanctuary after a long day on the water. The single bed, with convenient storage underneath, ensures that everything from bedding to personal items has its place, helping you keep the room neat and organized. The charming porthole window allows light to filter in while offering serene views of the water, adding a touch of warmth and cosiness to the room.

The compact bathroom is equipped with a cassette toilet, offering convenience and functionality. This essential space is well-designed to meet your basic needs while keeping things simple and easy to maintain during your travels.

IMP is a perfect blend of traditional design and modern convenience. With its manageable size and thoughtful layout, it's an ideal vessel for those seeking to explore the waterways at their own pace, offering comfort, charm, and practicality in every corner.
